

Jeffrey Ralph

Chief Operating Officer

JusticeWorks Family of Services

Jeff started his career working in Juvenile Justice, where he spent a majority of his time working as a Treatment Supervisor at a Residential Treatment Facility. After completing a Master's in Administration of Justice, Jeff took a position as a Unit Manager in the Philadelphia Prison System. After some time, Jeff returned to the Juvenile Justice/Child Welfare field, taking a Director position with JusticeWorks YouthCare. Jeff has been with JusticeWorks for the last 10+ years. He has held various positions including Regional Director, Executive Director, and he is currently the Chief Operating Officer, overseeing the operations in 8 different states.

Jeff holds a Bachelor's and Master's Degree from Shippensburg University, and a Doctorate in Organizational Leadership from Wilmington University.

Jeff also teaches a variety of courses at both Wilmington University and Eastern University, including Juvenile Justice, Corrections and Rehabilitation, and Restorative Justice.