

Andrea Weisberger, LPCC

Director of Education and Early Childhood Mental Health, Registered Play Therapist

The Buckeye Ranch

Dr. Andrea Weisberger is the Director of Education and Early Childhood Mental Health at The Buckeye Ranch and adjunct professor at Capital University. Dr. Weisberger has worked in school based mental health services for more than a decade in several school districts across the country. She is a Licensed Professional Clinical Counseling Supervisor as well as a Registered Play Therapist. As the daughter of a counselor, Dr. Weisberger has carried on the “family business” of providing therapeutic services to children, adolescents, and families in Florida, Texas, and Ohio. Her specialties include mental health counseling with children and adolescents, expressive arts, play therapy, and school based mental health practices in schools.