

Holly Jones, MA, LPCC-S

Senior Clinical Manager of Community Based Programs

The Buckeye Ranch

Holly Jones obtained her Masters degree in Mental Health Counseling from the University of Cincinnati in 2002. She is an independently licensed counselor with a supervision designation and has worked for The Buckeye Ranch for the last 17 years. Holly began her career working with sexual abuse victims in a residential setting. Holly was an Multi-Systemic Therapy clinician and Multi-Systemic Therapy Supervisor for 7 years at The Buckeye Ranch. Holly became the Senior Clinical Manager of Community Based Programs at The Buckeye Ranch in 2016, where she manages two community-based programs that provide intensive mental health services to children and families in the Franklin County area. In this position she led the agency's implementation of an Intensive Home-Based Treatment team, prior to the start of Behavioral Health Redesign and has helped manage and provide clinical consultation to the IHBT team since that time. She develops and provides training to clinical employees across multiple programs as well as managing the administrative side of the community-based programs. Holly is passionate about providing high quality evidence-based services to children and their families in their own communities.
